KIA ORA KOUTOU AND BIENVENUE!

FERGUS GRADY
Festival Director

Bienvenue to the French Film Festival Aotearoa 2026!

This year marks the 20th edition celebrating French film in Aotearoa, and it is truly fantastique to return to 24 towns and cities across the motu. Our 2026 line-up showcases stories that encompass a variety of perspectives and genres, and I hope you'll enjoy discovering them.

We're never short of a biopic, and this year we have The Richest Woman in the World about the billionaire heiress to the L'Oréal fortune, and De Gaulle, which charts Charles de Gaulle's rise as a military leader and politician during World War II. Also on show is The Money Maker, which tells the fascinating story of a counterfeiter known as the "Cezanne of money" for his artistic skills in post-war Paris, and Case 137, a gripping police story, for which Léa Drucker was deservedly awarded the 2026 César and Lumière Best Actress awards. Literary themes are also well spotlighted this year: we have a stylish adaption of Albert Camus' famous 1942 novella The Stranger, and the much anticipated adaptation from Victor Hugo's Les Misérables story: the dramatic Jean Valjean. Victor Hugo is again highlighted in the wonderful modern comedy An Evening With Victor Hugo.

Enjoy your journey through our selection of French cinema, we've certainly been looking forward to bringing it to you.

LAURENCE BEAU
Ambassador of France
to New Zealand

Dear cinephile friends,

French cinema has long held a special place in the hearts of New Zealand audiences and 2025 marked the most successful year to date in the country for the Festival. From sold-out screenings to enthusiastic critical reception, the appetite for French film has never been stronger — confirming this programme as the unmissable rendezvous for lovers of bold, uncompromising cinema.

This year's selection shines a particular light on the extraordinary depth of French acting talent, and on the women who define it. Isabelle Huppert (The Richest Woman in the World), whose screen presence remains in a category of its own, is joined by Laure Calamy (What is Love?), one of the most captivating performers of her generation, and Léa Drucker (Case 137), recently honoured with a César Award in recognition of a career of rare and consistent brilliance. Together, they offer audiences a masterclass in the art of inhabiting a role with intelligence and truth. Running through this programme is also the rich and complex figure of motherhood — brought to life with remarkable subtlety and warmth by Leïla Bekhti (Once Upon My Mother), whose performance resonates long after the credits roll. It is this combination of artistic ambition and deeply human storytelling that makes French cinema so enduringly, and so powerfully, alive.

The staying power of the French Film Festival Aotearoa owes much to the passionate contribution of the New Zealand actors and institutions involved in its making, without whom none of this would be possible, and to the New Zealand audience's continued enthusiasm for rich and engaging cinema. Un grand merci de la part du cinéma français.

FESTIVAL PATRON - KATE RODGER

Bonjour à tous! I'm delighted to be returning as your Patron this year, and it's been my pleasure to immerse myself in this fantastic selection of French films.

It's always hard to pick favourites, but here are eight that, for me, have just that little bit extra je ne sais quoi.

JUST AN ILLUSION (Rating TBC)

(Juste une illusion)

If you loved The Intouchables, then you're going to love the directors' latest film. Set in the 80s with a fantastic soundtrack, the film features an incredible debut performance from Simon Bublil, who will no doubt be the next Jean-Pierre Léaud (boy from The 400 Blows). This warm-hearted comedy has definite laugh-out-loud moments!

THE MUSICIANS (PG)

(Les musiciens)

Featuring wonderful music and set in a lavish mansion in the picturesque Champagne region, this is not to be missed. If you liked Grégory Magne's debut film Perfumes then you're going to love this.

SANTIAGO: THE CAMINO THERAPY

(Rating TBC) (Compostelle)

I loved this delightful journey that unfolds on the Camino de Santiago walkway. The terrific Alexandra Lamy leads this touching and rewarding story, set against a backdrop of the most spectacular scenery.

WHAT IS LOVE? (M)

(C'est quoi l'amour?)

This marital muddle sees an ex-husband and wife on a roadie to Rome to annul their marriage. The pairing of Vincent Macaigne with the always-hilarious Laure Calamy delivers a wonderful family story.

CASE 137 (M)

(Dossier 137)

Léa Drucker was rightly awarded the César and Lumière Best Actress awards for her stellar performance in this riveting police thriller. I really admire a great drama, and this one stayed with me well after the final scene.

THE MONEY MAKER (M)

(L'affaire Bojarski)

Reminiscent of Austrian-German film The Counterfeiters (one of my all time favs), Jan Bojarski is a brilliant engineer who falls in with the wrong crowd and becomes the "Cézanne of counterfeit money". Set in the tumultuous world of post-war Paris, this is not to be missed!

ONCE UPON MY MOTHER (G)

(Ma mère, Dieu et Sylvie Vartan)

A moving and life-affirming watch, I loved this story of a mother's determination to forge a fabulous life for her son. Vibrant visuals and joyous songs from Sylvie Vartan make this film the complete package!

AN EVENING WITH VICTOR HUGO

(Rating TBC) (Victor comme tout le monde)

I always enjoy watching the fabulous Fabrice Luchini, and he doesn't disappoint in this tongue-in-cheek comedy framing the writings of Victor Hugo against today's modern world.

COLOURS OF TIME

LA VENUE DE L'AVENIR

STARRING: Suzanne Lindon, Abraham Wapler, Julia Piaton, Vincent Macaigne

DIRECTED BY: Cédric Klapisch

COMEDY, DRAMA | 126 MINUTES | M Drug use, offensive language & nudity

Director Cedric Klapisch has crafted a genuine crowd pleasing story that blends the excitement, wonder and art of Belle Epoque France with present day themes around identity, legacy and connection.

In 1895, young Adele (Suzanne Lindon) leaves Normandy for Paris, a city alive and buzzing with invention, photography and the rise of Impressionism.

In the present day, her descendants inherit an unexpected legacy: a country side house in Normandy, abandoned for decades and suspended in time. Four of Adele's descendants arrive to survey the Estate, and together end up piecing together the story of Adele's unexpected life.

Colours of Time is a charming and fascinating family saga, and is sure to be a hit at this year's Festival. Book your opening night tickets now!

DE GAULLE

TILTING IRON

LA BATAILLE DE GAULLE: L'ÂGE DE FER

STARRING: Simon Abkarian, Simon Russell Beale, Florian Lesieur, Benoît Magimel
DIRECTED BY: Antonin Baudry
 BIOGRAPHY, DRAMA | 158 MINUTES | RATING TBC

Direct from the world premiere in France comes De Gaulle: Tilting Iron.

June 1940. France collapses and signs the Armistice. In the midst of the chaos, one man, Charles de Gaulle, refuses to give up.

Taking the ultimate gamble he flees to London and seeks to convince the world that the battle for France is neither over or lost. What follows next is a triumphant story of faith, audacity and an unshakeable quest for freedom.

Antonin Baudry has crafted a powerful and dramatic view of a man at the very centre of a turning point in history, on his path to becoming a 20th century leader and cultural icon. The reality of intense politics, family struggles and the impact of war are deftly drawn in this geopolitical thriller, which has been more than five years in the making.

Simon Abkarian commands the screen as the titular General, leading a stand-out ensemble cast including Benoît Magimel, Mathieu Kassovitz, François Darlan, Niels Schneider and the César-winner Anamaria Vartolomei (The Count of Monte Cristo). The talented Simon Russell Beale (The Choral) rounds out the cast as Winston Churchill, with the film exploring the complex relationship between De Gaulle and the British Bulldog.

Sure to be a talking point of the Festival, don't miss out on seeing this keenly anticipated film.

THE RICHEST WOMAN IN THE WORLD

LA FEMME LA PLUS RICHE DU MONDE

STARRING: Isabelle Huppert, Marina Foïs, Laurent Lafitte, Raphaël Personnaz
DIRECTED BY: Thierry Klifa
 COMEDY, DRAMA | 122 MINUTES | M. Offensive language, sexual references & nudity

Few modern scandals have captivated France as the astonishing events surrounding Liliane Bettencourt, the billionaire heiress to the L'Oréal fortune and doyenne of Parisian society. Now writer/director Thierry Klifa has freely adapted the incredible story into a captivating dark comedy, featuring a jaw-dropping, tailor-made role for one of France's most iconic stars.

Marianne Farrère (Isabelle Huppert), the head of the Windler Group, is the richest woman in the world. Pierre-Alain Fantin (Laurent Lafitte, who won a César award for his performance) is a vivacious dandy, writer and photographer. After meeting on a photo shoot, the two quickly become inseparable. Their friendship surprises, amuses, intrigues, and eventually unsettles the billionaire's entourage and family.

Most of all, Marianne's daughter (Marina Foïs) struggles with her mother's sudden complicity with this younger man, but her husband (André Marcon) and loyal butler (Raphaël Personnaz) share her concerns. Surreptitious queries soon transition into a private investigation, resulting in extraordinary ramifications for all involved...

With several twists too good to spoil, The Richest Woman in the World makes the most of its fabulous ensemble cast, but Huppert and Lafitte simply eat up the screen. This wildly entertaining film became an enormous box-office hit in France for good reason.

CASE 137

DOSSIER 137

STARRING: Léa Drucker, Guslagie Malanda, Stanislas Merhar, Jonathan Turnbull

DIRECTED BY: Dominik Moll

CRIME THRILLER, DRAMA | 116 MINUTES | M Violence & offensive language

Léa Drucker took home the Best Actress César award for her performance in this gripping thriller from Dominik Moll (Only the Animals), selected for official competition at Cannes International Film Festival 2025.

Drucker plays Stéphanie, an Internal Affairs police officer who is assigned the case of a young man severely wounded during a tense and chaotic demonstration in Paris. When she discovers that the victim hails from her hometown of Saint-Dizier, the case suddenly becomes far more personal.

While nothing initially points to police misconduct, Stéphanie soon finds herself isolated in a system hellbent on protecting its own. With officers refusing to talk, Sophie turns to housekeeper and reluctant witness Alicia Mady (Guslagie Malanda, Saint Omer), whose testimony holds the key to the truth - but puts them both in danger.

This compelling crime drama highlights themes of loyalty and justice that resonate long after the final scene, anchored strongly by Léa Drucker's commanding role.

"A CRIME DRAMA PERFORMED AND CRAFTED WITH THIS LEVEL OF CARE AND SOCIAL RESONANCE IS WELL WORTH INVESTIGATING."

THE STRANGER

L'ÉTRANGER

STARRING: Benjamin Voisin, Rebecca Marder, Pierre Lottin, Denis Lavant

DIRECTED BY: François Ozon

DRAMA | 122 MINUTES | RATING TBC

The superb new drama from multi award-winning writer/director François Ozon (Swimming Pool, 8 Women, Under the Sand), The Stranger is a gripping adaptation of Albert Camus' landmark novella about a detached young expatriate on trial for murder in French-colonised Algeria.

Summer, 1938. Meursault (Benjamin Voisin, Lost Illusions), a quiet and unassuming clerk in his early thirties, attends his mother's funeral. The next day he begins a casual affair with Marie (Rebecca Marder), a colleague randomly encountered at the local baths, and quickly slips back into routine. However, daily life is soon disrupted by his volatile neighbour (an excellent Pierre Lottin, who won a César award for his performance), who draws Meursault into a dispute involving an ex-lover. And then, one blisteringly hot afternoon, an inexplicable event occurs on a beach, one that will see Meursault's very moral standing brought to question...

Visually resplendent with sensuous black-and-white imagery, Ozon's elegant and masterfully realised film shines a contemporary lens on Camus' classic tale of dissociation and morality, capturing the beauty and heat of a charged society on the boil. Both impactful and mysterious, The Stranger is one of the major highlights of this year's Festival and should not be missed.

JEAN VALJEAN

JEAN VALJEAN

STARRING: Grégory Gadebois, Bernard Campan, Isabelle Carré

DIRECTED BY: Eric Besnard

DRAMA | 99 MINUTES | M Violence

Victor Hugo's masterpiece Les Misérables is one of the most beloved novels of the 19th century, and now the superb Grégory Gadebois has re-teamed with his Delicious writer/director Éric Besnard for this authentic and emotionally affecting retelling that charts the origin story of the tale's legendary protagonist.

1815. Provence, France. In the peaceful village of Digne, rumour spreads that a dangerous man has entered the area; indeed, the hulking Valjean (Gadebois) has just been released from prison after nineteen years of hard labour.

Branded a criminal and ostracised, Jean is repeatedly turned away. Desperate for a bed, he knocks at the door of the house of Monseigneur Bienvenu (Bernard Campan), who lives simply with his ailing sister (Isabelle Carré) and dedicated – but suspicious – servant (Alexandra Lamy). Without judgement, Bienvenu invites him in. And on this crucial night, Jean will face a choice that will define his future...

With this superbly filmed exploration of justice, empathy and moral redemption, Besnard's reflective and intimate drama – and Gadebois' towering performance – bring new depth to Hugo's hero, a spurned man transformed by kindness and compassion.

Admirers of the source text and rich historical drama will not be disappointed by Jean Valjean.

MAIGRET AND THE DEAD LOVER

MAIGRET ET LE MORT AMOUREUX

STARRING: Denis Podalydès, Anne Alvaro, Manuel Guillot, Irène Jacob

DIRECTED BY: Pascal Bonitzer

CRIME | 79 MINUTES | PG

Following the break-out success of 2025 hit The Stolen Painting, acclaimed writer/director Pascal Bonitzer brings his unique perspective and panache to Simenon's cherished Parisian detective - a French counterpart to Agatha Christie's Poirot - as he attempts to solve the murder of a diplomat with a long-held secret.

Inspector Maigret (four-time César nominee Denis Podalydès, in a tremendous performance) is urgently summoned to the Quai d'Orsay: a former ambassador has been found shot dead by his long-serving housekeeper (Anne Alvaro, Bolero). But rather than contact the police, she has followed diplomatic protocols by first informing the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Forewarned that he will find a series of salacious letters - and cautioned to be discrete - Maigret heads to the victim's opulent apartment. He finds no forensic evidence at the crime scene, but certainly, the letters prove startling - secret, decades-spanning correspondence between the ambassador and the Princess of Vuyne, whose own husband, by strange coincidence, has also just died...

Bonitzer, renowned for an intuitive and empathetic focus, finds a perfect match with a protagonist who relies on quiet observation. He delivers an absorbing, wholly compelling mystery that also serves as a thoughtful examination of modern life's key concerns: hierarchy, aging, and the very different worlds that money creates. Best of all, the twist ending is... a killer.

THE MONEY MAKER

L'AFFAIRE BOJARSKI

STARRING: Reda Kateb, Sara Giraudeau, Bastien Bouillon, Pierre Lottin
DIRECTED BY: Jean-Paul Salomé
 DRAMA, THRILLER | 129 MINUTES | M Violence, offensive language, drug use, sex scenes & nudity

Based on an incredible true story, The Money Maker follows Jan Bojarski (Reda Kateb, The Extraordinary), a young Polish engineer taking refuge in France during World War II. Desperate to survive, he turns his talents to forging identity documents during the German occupation.

Once the war ends, Jan still finds himself struggling to make ends meet. Stuck in underpaid jobs and denied citizenship, he is unable to patent his many inventions. Jan's engineering expertise seems to be wasted, until a gangster recognises his skills and presents a risky opportunity - to produce counterfeit banknotes...

So begins a thrilling and nail-biting series of events, as Jan begins to lead a double life. For over 15 years he runs a counterfeiting operation from his garden shed - unbeknownst to his family.

Jan's fakes are so precise he earns the moniker "the Cézanne of counterfeit money." - but this also draws attention. Jan soon finds himself in the crosshairs of Inspector Mattéi (Bastien Bouillon, also starring in Leave One Day), one of France's most determined detectives.

Director Jean-Paul Salomé (The Godmother, The Sitting Duck) brings this fascinating and gripping tale to life, with an unforgettable performance from Reda Kateb as the man who shook the Bank of France. The film was a certified hit in France, with over 1.1 million admissions. Make time for The Money Maker at this year's Festival!

The MUSICIANS

LES MUSICIENS

STARRING: Valérie Donzelli, Frédéric Pierrot, Mathieu Spinosi, Emma Ravier

DIRECTED BY: Grégory Magne

COMEDY, DRAMA | 102 MINUTES | PG Coarse language

The enchanting new comedy of manners from acclaimed writer/director Grégory Magne (whose debut Perfumes was a huge success in the 2021 Festival), The Musicians stars Valérie Donzelli as a wealthy heiress whose plan to stage a landmark concert is derailed by the clashing egos of the virtuosos recruited for the performance.

Astrid Thompson (Donzelli) is determined to honour her late industrialist father's final wish: unite four priceless Stradivarius-stringed instruments for the premiere recital of a new composition by his favourite artist, to be live-streamed for music lovers globally. With just six days to rehearse, a quartet is assembled, but the dream quickly unravels: the musicians are at odds, blinded by their differences and prejudices, and seemingly incapable of working together. With the deadline fast approaching, Astrid tries to coax the reclusive composer of the score, Charlie Beaumont (Frédéric Pierrot), out from creative seclusion in the desperate hope of salvaging the event...

As the film crescendos to a tender, exhilarating finale where harmony is found not only in music but human connection, The Musicians celebrates both the chaos and beauty of collaboration. Set amidst the villas, vineyards and chapels of the stunning Champagne region, with an exquisite original score by Grégoire Hetzel, this is sparkling entertainment for the heart (and ears).

THE CAMINO THERAPY
COMPOSTELLE

STARRING: Alexandra Lamy, Julien Le Berre, Mélanie Doutey, Eric Metayer
DIRECTED BY: Yann Samuëll
DRAMA | 113 MINUTES | RATING TBC

Experience the breathtaking scenery of the Camino de Santiago in this life-affirming drama centred on an unforgettable pairing of characters.

Adam (a powerful performance from up-and-comer Julien Le Berre) is a teenager who's lost and heading in the wrong direction. After a run-in with the law, a judge hands over a surprising sentence: he must walk the 800 kilometre Camino de Santiago to think about his future.

Assigned to walk the path with Adam is Fred (an excellent-as-always Alexandra Lamy, Miss Violet), a tough and outspoken woman coming to terms with her own chequered history. The two begin a journey that could change their lives.

The pair make an unlikely team; Fred is looking to heal from her past, while Adam is struggling to channel his anger and feelings of abandonment. With every mile travelled, they inevitably endure exhaustion, clashes and arguments.

But among the points of tension are moments of peace. As the miles rack up, Fred and Adam begin to form a strong bond. Walking The Way, they each discover an inner strength they didn't know they had. Will it be enough to accomplish the goals they set out to achieve?

Santiago: The Camino Therapy is an uplifting and inspirational story with gorgeous vistas that deserve to be seen on the big screen.

just an illusion

JUSTE UNE ILLUSION

STARRING: Louis Garrel, Camille Cottin, Pierre Lottin, Simon Boubilil
DIRECTED BY: Eric Toledano and Oliver Nakache
COMEDY | 119 MINUTES | RATING TBC

From Eric Toledano and Oliver Nakache, the award-winning directors of The Intouchables and A Difficult Year comes Just an Illusion, a heartwarming and brilliant comedy set in the suburbs of Paris in 1985.

The film follows Vincent (an incredible debut performance from Simon Boubilil), a boy standing on the precipice of his 13th birthday and his Bar Mitzvah - a milestone that feels more like an identity crisis than a celebration.

Vincent's mother Sandrine (Camille Cottin, Three Friends) tries to hold the family together with her job as a secretary, while his father Yves (Louis Garrel, also starring in Couture) grapples with unemployment and a wounded ego.

Caught between his parents' frequent arguments and a distant older brother, Arnaud (Alexis Rosenstiehl), Vincent must find his own rhythm in a family that is out of sync.

Simon Boubilil is being hailed as a major discovery for his performance as Vincent, carrying this nostalgia soaked tale with a winning combination of vulnerability and dry humour. Meanwhile, French cinema stalwarts Cottin and Garrel deliver explosive but grounded chemistry.

Directors Toledano and Nakache blend the infectious energy of a classic 80s soundtrack with their signature brand of heartfelt humour, for their most personal film to date. Book in quick to avoid disappointment!

AN EVENING WITH
Victor Hugo

VICTOR COMME TOUT LE MONDE

STARRING: Fabrice Luchini, Chiara Mastroianni, Marie Narbonne

DIRECTED BY: Pascal Bonitzer

COMEDY, DRAMA | 90 MINUTES | RATING TBC

Director Pascal Bonitzer (Maigret and the Dead Lover) brings this charming tale from the late Sophie Fillières brilliantly to life.

French acting legend Fabrice Luchini plays popular performer Robert Zucchini, who has built his career on a stage act that lauds the works of the famous writer Victor Hugo.

Robert's bold reverence of Hugo's 'male genius' doesn't always play well with more enlightened modern audiences, and he finds himself not only at odds with a feminist theatre troupe, but with his adult daughter Lisbeth (Marie Narbonne, The Count of Monte Cristo), who has recently reappeared in his life.

Robert wrestles with how art meets with politics - but more importantly, with his real-life relationships. Where he once took refuge in texts of the past, Lisbeth demands his presence in the moment.

Little by little, with his daughter's help, Robert begins to reconnect with his past, open up to others and relearn the practice of his craft.

Pascal Bonitzer has crafted a slick, emotional, funny account of modern problems playing out on and off stage. Centred by a brilliant performance from the always-exceptional Fabrice Luchini, An Evening with Victor Hugo is a must-see at the 2026 Festival.

L'AMOUR & LAUGHTER

THE SON OF

FILS DE

COMEDY | 106 MINUTES | M Offensive language & sexual references

One week after a chaotic presidential election, France urgently needs a new Prime Minister. A hapless but ambitious young parliamentary assistant has a plan: convince his retired and highly erratic politician father (François Cluzet, The Intouchables) to return from exile and seize the top job. What follows is a breakneck political comedy that transforms into a razor-sharp portrait of power, ambition, and the flexibility of principle. The narrative hums with uncanny and prophetic resonance. Think Veep with a distinctly Gallic accent; anyone appreciative of Armando Iannucci's savage political dissections and Succession will find much to savour here in this mischievously satisfying, winning satire.

COMEDY | 103 MINUTES | M Sex scenes & offensive language

Elsa Zylberstein (Simone: Woman of the Century) and Didier Bourdon (The Scammers) star in this inventive time travel comedy that sharply explores societal roles. It's 1958 in quiet suburbia. Hélène and Michel live a simple but happy life with their two children. Michel works in a bank, while Hélène focuses her efforts on their home and family life. Through an unexpected series of events, the couple find themselves catapulted into the 21st century. As they navigate this unfamiliar world, the pair must confront new ways of thinking, loving and living. Propelled by hilarious performances, this is a delightfully subversive comedy that will have you rediscovering the present through characters from a bygone era.

Making waves in 2025 as the first-ever debut feature selected to open the Cannes Film Festival, Amélie Bonnin's joyously entertaining musical romance stars break-out singer/songwriter Juliette Armanet as a talented Parisian chef forced to reconnect with her small-town upbringing during an unexpected trip home. Cécile (Armanet) – a fan-favourite Top Chef winner – is about to finally realise her dream and open her own restaurant when her father, the cook at a small rural truck stop, falls unwell. Cécile must deal with a return to her roots that is more complicated than she imagined in this warm-hearted and completely endearing gem.

THE PARTY'S OVER!

CLASSE MOYENNE

COMEDY | 95 MINUTES | M Violence, offensive language, sex scenes & nudity

This entertaining black comedy follows Mehdi (Sami Outalballi, Lucky Winners), a recent law graduate from a modest background spending the summer at his girlfriend's luxurious family villa. He soon finds himself caught in an escalating class conflict between the entitled Trousselard family and their mistreated caretakers. Hoping to secure an internship at his girlfriend's father's prestigious law firm, Mehdi attempts to mediate between the two sides, only to be trapped in a spiralling conflict over money, power and pride. The Party's Over! is a biting satirical portrait of class privilege with a sensational comic cast including Laure Calamy and recent César award-winner Laurent Lafitte.

Based on the bestselling autobiography by Roland Perez, this exuberant and heartrending film pays tribute to a love like no other – a mother's love for her child. In 1963, Roland is born to Esther, her sixth child in their close-knit Jewish immigrant family living in the Parisian suburbs. When Esther learns that Roland has been born with a club foot, she vows to ensure her son lives not just a normal life, but a fabulous one. She enlists the help of a determined specialist and the pop songs of Sylvie Vartan (who makes a cameo in the film) to help Roland defy all expectations and learn to walk. This joyful crowd-pleaser absolutely smashed the French box office with over 1.5 million admissions.

WHAT IS LOVE?

C'EST QUOI L'AMOUR?

COMEDY, ROMANCE | 108 MINUTES | M Nudity, drug use & offensive language

What is Love? is an uplifting and comedic examination of relationships and new beginnings, brought to life by an all-star cast. Marguerite (Festival favourite Laure Calamy) has long since moved on from her ex-husband Fred (Vincent Macaigne), having established a new life with a different partner. When Fred asks for Marguerite's help in obtaining an annulment of their marriage from the Catholic Church, she is only too happy to oblige. However, as Marguerite and Fred navigate old memories and rediscover genuine affection - as well as the tensions that broke them - long-buried feelings begin to surface.

COMEDY, DRAMA | 84 MINUTES | M Offensive language & sexual references

This exciting debut feature follows a delightful cast of characters on a road trip that will change their lives. Julia Piaton plays Mélanie, a gifted lawyer suffering from a terminal illness. Deciding it's time to live life on her own terms, she convinces her old school friend Benjamin (Quentin Dolmaire) to accompany her on a road trip to Spain. Joining them as their burly chauffer is Lucas (Grégory Gadebois), one of Mélanie's clients who has recently been released from prison. In exchange for her legal services, Mélanie ropes him into taking the wheel. The unlikely trio embark on an unforgettable journey across stunning vistas, embracing joy and friendship along the way. This a trip you will most certainly want to take!

A NUN IN THE CITY

DOUX JÉSUS

COMEDY | 86 MINUTES | PG Violence & coarse language

After twenty years of devotion to her convent, Sister Lucie's (Marilou Berry) quiet life is upended when she is separated from her sisterhood during a group outing. While trying to find her way home, she spots a familiar face on a television screen: her teenage sweetheart, now accused of a high-profile murder. Convinced of his innocence, she makes the impulsive decision to try to help him. Lucie's disappearance has caused panic back at the convent, and the formidable Mother Superior Henriette (Isabelle Nanty, Amélie) sends two nuns to track her down and bring her back. A Nun in the City is a heartwarming, comedic story where faith, freedom and past love collide with surprising results.
